Dear Reader,

Sometimes it's OK to ask the difficult questions. That's partly what life, religion, faith, spirituality is all about. That's why we at Oldham Unitarian Chapel say:

“We do not all hold the same beliefs, rather each person is encouraged to develop his or her own faith in a continuing search for truth.”

Oldham Unitarians are:

- Open minded
- Welcoming
- Committed to peace, social justice, and social responsibility
- Seeking to make a positive contribution to life in Oldham
- Looking for like-minded people like you to be part of our exciting plans. Please contact us now!
