The Annual General Meeting of the South East Wales Unitarian Society was held at Highland Place Church, Aberdare at 11am on Sunday, 28 April.

Following the opening devotions District President Diana Bianchi guided us through a review of the year's work as detailed in reports contained in the printed Annual Report. Mr Alun Watts of Highland Place congregation was installed as the new District President and officers for the ensuing period were elected. (For a full list of officers visit www.ukunitarians.org.uk/sewus/committee.htm)

Our thanks go to the Highland Place congregation for providing an excellent buffet following the service and for hosting a most successful event.

[Please see also the Aberdare News and the Picture Gallery for further coverage of this event.]

FROM THE DISTRICT PRESIDENT

I was honoured recently to accept the Presidency of the South East Wales Unitarian Society for the next two years. I will endeavour to serve as the representative of our denomination to the best of my ability.

Over the next two years, I will visit each congregation in the District to engage with as many people as possible, to examine how we can publicise and promote the Unitarian and Free Christian Churches in our area.

I understand that I am the 74th President of SEWUS since C H Perkins from Swansea was installed as our first President in 1891. I am also the 13th President from the Highland Place congregation. The number 13 in our family is a lucky number as our first granddaughter was born on 13th June 1996 and I certainly hope it is a lucky omen for my presidency.

Unlike most of my predecessors, I do not hail from a Unitarian family or background. So, I thought I would share with you the story of the journey that led to my wife Anne and I calling Highland Place Church - 'Our Church'.

I was born and bred in Cwmbach a village about 2 miles outside Aberdare. At one time the village did have a Unitarian Chapel but that closed in 1935 long before I was born. When I was growing up in the late 1940s and early 1950s the chapel was rented to a local Apostolic congregation and I did visit the chapel then as they held "Band of Hope meetings for the local children.

I was brought up in a Nonconformist household and my family were members of Capel Yr Annibynwyr, "Bryn Seion" in Cwmbach. I attended chapel three times on a Sunday, in the morning with my grandmother and also in the afternoon to Ysgol Sul. I accompanied my parents to the evening service.

Anne and I were married in 1971 and in 1972 we bought a house in Beddau near Llantrisant.

We then attended an Independent chapel there called Castellau. Anne became a Sunday School teacher and I served on the chapel committee, eventually becoming the Chapel Secretary.

Our daughter Laura was born in 1975 and we decided to return to the Cynon Valley. We moved to our present house in 1977.

As Anne and I had attended Sunday School from an early age we wanted Laura to follow suit. We looked around and were told that Highland Place had a thriving Sunday School.

I can recall discussing the above with a work colleague, John, who happened to be a deacon in a Baptist Church in Cardiff. He was of course supportive of the idea of sending Laura to a Sunday School – until I mentioned that it was in a Unitarian Church. John exploded! He told me, "you cannot send your daughter there, they are not Christian." Actually, we found the liberal values and tolerant attitude of this church more in keeping with the teachings of Jesus than those preached by some traditional denominations.

Well, you can imagine, I was taken aback by John's outburst. This was of course pre internet, so Anne and I invited Eric Jones who was then the minister of Highland Place to discuss our dilemma.

Having spoken to Eric suffice to say that Laura and then Gareth who was born in 1979 attended Sunday School at Highland Place. They participated in the Eisteddfodau which were then arranged by the Society and in various services in Highland Place especially at Christmas. Consequently, both Anne and myself began attending services at Highland Place.

Anne has been President of both the Highland Place Women's League and the District Women's League and is presently secretary of the Highland Place Women's League. We both serve on the Church committee at Highland Place and I am the Minute Secretary and Gift Aid co-ordinator for the Church.

That, briefly, is the story of my journey to SEWUS President.

My first act as President was to attend an Inter-Faith service held on Sunday 5th May at Swansea Unitarian Church. This service brought to an end the Swansea Pride Festival. It was a moving service conducted by the Rev Wyn Thomas, with many faiths, and people of no faith, taking part. I was able to speak to people from the Quaker community, the Salvation Army and the United Reform Church.

I would like to thank Diana for being our President for the past two years. I know she has represented the Society at various events in that time. I would like to thank her for her leadership and hope she will have a well-earned rest from her onerous duties.

I would also like to thank our Secretary Lis and our Treasurer Eric for their unstinting work for the Society over many years.

Alun Watts

FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE UNITARIAN WELSH DEPARTMENT

Since the publication of the last newsletter Unitarians Wales have been very busy as usual. The new Chief Officer, Liz Slade chose to visit Wales as the first stop of her whistle stop tour of the country on the 25th March. It was a valuable opportunity for her to meet not only members of her staff, members of the Unitarians Wales committee, but also District officers.

Being a day shorter this year there was even more rushing around, and I am very grateful to Diana, Julie, Lis, Manon, Rory and Wyn for helping with the slot on Wednesday afternoon.

Immediately after the GA it was down to Llanmadog Christian Centre on the Gower for a couple of days with a crowd of young Unitarians. The weather was beautiful, the location stunning and the children and young people were a delight to be with. It was so good to see the different Sunday schools and youth clubs getting together, forming friendships and establishing connections for the future. It was especially good to be able to welcome Megan from Gellionnen to the group as it was very brave of her to come on her own to join in with a group of people that she had never met before and for her to have fitted in so comfortably. I hope that this will be the start of a more regular programme of activities for our young people.

Swansea Pride was another very enjoyable and successful event which we attended this year, and having chosen a wedding theme for our party and stand it provided a great opportunity to advertise our chapels that hold a same-sex wedding licence. Congratulations to Swansea Unitarians for the wonderful LGBT+ Interfaith service hosted at the church to close the official Pride celebrations for the week. It was a very moving and beautiful experience which opened our doors, not only to those who would not normally attend a Unitarian church, but also to those who had never heard of Unitarianism.

Congratulations too to Alun Watts on becoming President of SEWUS and we look forward to working with him on the Unitarians Wales committee for the next two years. Our thanks to Diana Bianchi who has now stepped down after her term as SEWUS President came to an end.

Finally, a reminder that Unitarians Wales will be holding two events at Capel Penrhiw Sain Ffagan this year. The first will be the Sunday School Festival which will be held on the 9th June at 2 o'clock, and the next will be on the 8th September at 3 o'clock. This coincides with the Food Fair at the museum which means that there'll be a much better opportunity to welcome more visitors and to share our faith. I will have some parking tickets, so please do let me know if you intend to attend, so that I can get them out to you. Enjoy the summer and I hope that you'll manage to attend some of our events over the coming months.

Melda Grantham

THOUGHT FOR NOW

(We are indebted to Anne Jones for bringing the following to our attention.)

They are wise who do not grieve for the things that they don't have, but rejoice for those which they have.
Epicetetus (c. 55 – 135 AD)

ABERDARE

Women's League

I am pleased to say that, at this time, some of our members are beginning to make a welcome recovery. Celia Evans has made a return to Church and Anne Jones and Margaret Slocombe are continuing to recover well. However, Jean Rees is still hospitalised, and Dorothy Jones continues to be very unwell. Diane Jones is in Mountain Ash Hospital and Pat Dennis is continuing to recover from injuries. Joy Foster is struggling with a hip problem and Betty Evans is coping with her mobility problems. We are delighted that Barbara Hughes' sister Sandra is making a good recovery and to welcome Barbara back into our midst after caring for Sandra. A speedy recovery is wished for all.

On 20th March, we had a successful District meeting and enjoyed wonderful hospitality offered by the ladies of Cefn Coed Women's League, once again. Our thanks to all concerned.

Afternoon tea beckoned on 27th March and the catering by Cwmdare Social Club treated us to splendid tea with cakes galore.

We had an interesting and informative meeting about 'Easter customs' on 3rd April and everyone learned something new.

On 10th April, I gave a talk on 'Elizabeth Andrews,' a BBC icon and a remarkable lady, who was born in Hirwaun. As a pioneer, she left a legacy of nursery education, pit baths to alleviate women's domestic lives and life-changing, improved healthcare for women and children, at large.

Members enjoyed a social gathering in Dare Country Park in our last Spring meeting on 17th April.

On 1st May, we began our Summer season with a planning meeting, which was only partially successful as we were depleted in numbers.

On 8th May, we enjoyed 'Pandora's Box,' when members revived nostalgic memories and finally, we have had to cancel our Women's League's meeting on 15th May due to building work on the roof of the schoolroom.

Our Branch AGM will now be held on 22nd May.

*Best Wishes to all
Anne Watts*

On March 24th, a short service led by Tony Foster was followed by our AGM. A well-attended meeting was chaired by our Congregation Chairman, Humphrey Evans. Reports were presented by Treasurer, Merrilee Jones and by the various church support groups. Our thanks to all for their hard work during the past year.

The SE Wales District AGM was held at Highland Place church on Sunday, April 21st. It was an excellent business meeting chaired by outgoing President Diana Bianchi. Reports were presented and accepted, and officers were elected. At the end of the meeting Alun Watts was installed as the new District President for the next two years. Our thanks go to Diana for her hard work during her presidency and congratulations to Alun. A memorable service followed the AGM, which was arranged and conducted by Alun, with members of his family participating. Laura and Gareth read the 100th Psalm in English and Welsh respectively, whilst Lauren, Ava, Joshua and Oliver sang 'This is me'. Our thanks to Grace Jones for accompanying on piano and playing the organ for the hymns. We were very pleased that all present were able to attend the buffet following the service. This was hosted (very efficiently, I might add) by the Men's Group and a celebratory cake was cut by Alun. A big thank you to members of Highland Place congregation for providing the food.

We held a short service in the school room on April 14th, conducted by Humphrey Evans which was followed by a Bread and Cheese lunch. This was in aid of the Welsh Department Mental Health Charity Appeal. A collection was taken and £150 was raised and donated to New Horizons a local charity which supports people suffering with mental health problems. Our thanks to Angela and Richard Jones for the catering.

After our service on May 12th, led by Lis Dyson-Jones, members of the congregation joined together for Sunday lunch at The Marquis in Aberdare. A very enjoyable time was had by all and our thanks go to Joy Foster for making the arrangements.

Builders moved into Highland Place in May to carry out Phase One of the essential repairs needed. All lead work and hundreds of slates were replaced on the roof of the schoolroom. Some understandable disruption was caused to our Coffee Mornings, Meditation Group and Women's League meetings, but our thanks to the builders for the clean and efficient manner they carried out their work. Work has also been carried out in Hen Dŷ Cwrdd, Trecynon. Electricity has been installed so we now have some lighting and a little heat as well. Our thanks to Pen y Cymoedd Trust for their support. A request for major grant funding is to be made to Pen y Cymoedd and the National Lottery to complete the renovation, to build a Tea Room as well as employ a person to develop activities at the centre. It is hoped that it will be used for Welsh Language activities as well as a 'break-out' space for the Coliseum theatre with the use of their car parking facilities. Exciting times!

Our best wishes go to Marion Davies on celebrating her 99th birthday and our congratulations to Dyfan Jones (son of Anne and Eric) for being involved in composing the music for Vivienne Westwood's Fashion Show in London. Also, for providing the music for a production by the Royal Shakespeare Company at Stratford and Dyfan has been working, composing and directing a children's pageant for the Urdd National Eisteddfod in Cardiff, and a production in Welsh by Theatre Genedlaethol Cymru.

Important Dates for your diaries.

Friday 5th July is the date for the Highland Place Annual Lecture. Ann Clwyd MP will speak on her experiences in Parliament. We look forward to seeing you there.

Saturday 31st August, it is hoped a Strawberry Tea will be held at Hen Dŷ Cwrdd, Trecynon by the 'Friends of Hen Dŷ Cwrdd'. Development Plans will be on display. We hope as many as possible will be able to support this event.

Tony Foster

CARDIFF UNITARIANS / UNDO DIAID CAERDYDD

Several Cardiff members attended the national Annual Meetings in Birmingham. We have also been active in supporting events in Cardiff including the United Nations Anti-Racism Day march across Cardiff, a talk about Islam and Climate Change with the United Nations Association and the first Trans Pride event in Cardiff.

In April our theme was Crucifixion and Resurrection. We talked about the spiritual meaning of dying and rising again, that sometimes a kind of dying and rising again happens in our souls. In our Easter service we heard from the poet Maya Angelou, with her powerful poem reflecting the African American experience "Still I rise":

You may write me down in history
With your bitter, twisted lies,
You may trod me in the very dirt
But still, like dust, I'll rise...

You may shoot me with your words,
You may cut me with your eyes,
You may kill me with your hatefulness,
But still, like air, I'll rise...

Leaving behind nights of terror and fear
I rise
Into a daybreak that's wondrously clear
I rise
Bringing the gifts that my ancestors gave,
I am the dream and the hope of the slave.
I rise
I rise
I rise.

Women's League

Our League meeting on Wednesday, 29 May was 'different'. We had decided that we needed a change and had arranged to have Afternoon Tea at the Drovers Arms, a local hostelry on the main road through the village. The pub is only a couple of hundred yards from the chapel so, despite its name, we didn't need any shepherding in getting there (or in getting home after the visit!)

Eight of us were able to attend and we had a lovely afternoon in a friendly atmosphere. The food, a good selection of sandwiches with a variety of cakes, was delicious. We had a fine chat together afterwards and a thoroughly good afternoon was enjoyed by all.

Out and about

The Hen Dŷ Cwrdd contingent much enjoyed their visit to Highland Place, Aberdare on 28 April for the District AGM and Service. We congratulate Alun Watts on his installation as District President and we wish him well.

Three members attended a lecture organised by the Jewish History Association at Canolfan Soar Merthyr Tydfil on 3 June. As a consequence, the Men's Group is contemplating a visit to the Association's touring exhibition at the Aberdare Museum (13–17 August) or at Merthyr Central Library (19–24 August).

Antipodean Visitors

At our service conducted by Rev. Eric Jones on Sunday 6 May, we were pleasantly surprised to welcome Australian visitors Andrew and Cherie. Andrew comes originally from Caerphilly and the couple stayed there on their visit to Wales. They found us through searching 'Unitarian' on the Internet and, after a phone-call to establish the time of service, sped up the A470 to join us. We were pleased to have their company at the service and afterwards for a cup of tea and a chat.

Good News

It is good to report that after several months spent receiving medical care at a number of different locations Marian Saunders is much happier being back in the comfort of her own home with her husband Arthur. Good also that Arthur is recovering from his knee operation and is able to help with Marian's recuperation. We send them our best wishes.

NOTTAGE

A celebration of the 364th Anniversary of the General Baptist Assembly was held on Saturday, 11th May at Nottage Chapel. The Assembly is actually 371 years old, but seven meetings were missed over the years due to wars etc.

The event was attended by around 30 members who travelled from as far away as Kent, East and West Sussex, Hampshire, Gloucestershire, Wiltshire as well as Glamorgan and the Anniversary Service was conducted by Reverend Lewis Rees on the theme of "Preparing for the future by building upon the Past".

A splendid lunch and high tea were provided by the membership of Nottage Chapel and Reverend Lewis thanked them for their hard work in preparing the chapel for the Anniversary celebration, as well as the christening which was held on the following day during the Sunday Service, welcoming approximately 70 people to the christening of Master Ronald (Ronnie) Torkington-Cook; great-grandson of Mrs Eileen Torkington. The Minister used his address to inform those present of the significance of christening/baptism in a Unitarian and Free Christian concept.

One of our members, June Pattimore is unwell at the moment and is unable to attend the Sunday services. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Also, Nottage Chapel members would like to welcome back to the congregation Harry and Janet Hales who have recently moved back to Porthcawl.

Jeannie Monks

SWANSEA

The Swansea Congregation have been busy during the last few months.

The first weekend in May saw Swansea Pride take place.

The church had a spring clean and was decorated with the rainbow colours just in time for the filming for the BBC Coverage of the Swansea Pride on the Welsh news. Rory and Melda spoke on camera and the women of the congregation were filmed decorating the church.

On the Saturday there was the parade through Swansea. Local Unitarians had taken the theme of marriage and were dressed for a wedding complete with bride and groom for the parade. The Parade ended at the Waterfront Museum where many stalls filled the area both inside and out. The Unitarian stall was decorated with the theme of marriage, including a bottle of champagne!

On the Sunday we had the LGBT Interfaith service in our church. We were amazed to see the building filled to capacity with many different faiths taking part. The Jewish representative was Norma Glass who spoke of the links between the two communities. Apparently, Unitarians let them use the church when their synagogue was bombed. And 50 years later her husband was the architect who drew up the plans for the rebuilding of the Swansea Church after the fire. Rev Wyn Thomas led the service and gave a very moving talk. Many thanks to all who came to support this venture and to Rory and Melda for their efforts.

Lynn has been helping the electrician to repair the lights in the studio. They are most impressive. We also had to replace the main fuse box a few weeks later. And sort out the boiler for the water heater. However, the kitchen is being decluttered and cleaned. Anyone want cups and saucers? We emptied out 3 full cupboards! We have another working party on Friday, so our kitchen is slowly improving.

Lynn has also been busy with the outside of the church. He is being helped to clear the graveyard at the back by Unity in Diversity who rent our hall. Lynn has also ordered the plants for the baskets and troughs for the front of the church. They usually give a good display.

It is with some sadness that we have to say goodbye to Melda as her period of ministry work experience comes to an end. She has given us several interesting services and has supported the work of the church committee. It has been really good to have her positivity and fresh ideas, although free breakfasts to the public on Sunday were overruled! We wish you all the best for your studies.

Swansea Congregation sends good wishes to all in the District.

Hilda Dumpleton

TREBANOS

GELLIONNEN

Time moves on too fast! Our daffodils in the graveyard have been succeeded by lovely drifts of bluebells. We have listened to the song of the lark and back in very early May we heard the sound of the cuckoo.

Congratulations to Katy Clark and Siân Evans who have celebrated their twenty-first birthdays.

At Swansea University's "Bigger Picture Festival" a Unitarian stand was supported by Swansea and Gellionnen Unitarians and our Welsh Department Secretary Melda Grantham.

On Saturday, 4th May – the day of the Swansea Pride March – it was cold but sunny. Ten of us took part and we were pleasantly surprised to see the three best-looking (Gwennan, Hannah and Eleanor) pictured together on the BBC Ten o'clock News. The weekend brought Rev Wyn Thomas to the High Street Church for Sunday afternoon service. We were honoured by the presence of people of many persuasions and none, several of whom chose to speak, and we were delighted by the group which chose to sing. Tea and biscuits afterwards gave us further opportunity to talk.

On Easter Sunday morning we received greetings from Mair and Clive Evans. We have missed them over recent months due to Clive being unwell and were happy to know that we are as much in their thoughts as they are in ours. Sandra Beynon's simnel cake was worth coming to chapel for.

Gwennan Evans' service of blessing was celebrated by Julie Nedin. Her sister Siân's service of blessing took place when she was an infant and was conducted by Dr Elwyn Davies. Somehow Gwennan's service never happened, and as she grew older she was given the option. After two years of careful thought and at the age of fifteen she decided she would like to have the same thing! She requested that Julie take the service, that Lawrence Bowen provide the music and Rhys and Rory Castle Jones be her lifetime supporters. Several friends and relatives were there and at the end of service Gwen was presented with a beautiful pink orchid to mark the occasion. We finished up with a chapel party. Say what you like, we Unitarians are good at celebrating. Gwen was told that the chapel would make a donation to the charity of her choice to mark the occasion. She chose the Pontardawe Arts Centre which has a busy and creative programme, particularly for young people. A cheque for £100 has been presented.

We were thrilled to hear of Aneirin Jones' success at the Welsh Folk Awards 2019. Prizes were presented in the BBC Hodynott Hall at the Millennium Centre. Aneirin, who plays the fiddle was involved in three groups winning three prizes: - Best Album – "Tŷ Ein Tadau"; Best Traditional Welsh Song – "Ffoles Llantrisant"; Best Live Act – "Pendevig", a super-group formed in 2018 at the prestigious Lorient Festival in Brittany. Aneirin plays with us in Gellionnen Chapel every Christmas Eve as do his two gifted brothers Hywel and Caradog.

The chimney sweep has made his annual visit and made a few repairs to the log-burning stove. The hearth has now been swept and we shall not see a glowing fire again until the autumn.

We look forward to a Mountain Litter Pick on 22nd June and our Annual Folk Service on 18th August.

Marian Littlepage

WICK

Our best bit of news is the completion of our toilet rebuilding. It was a very complicated procedure as the original was just a build-on between a wall and some graves. It had become completely detached from the chapel building, but now has been expertly replaced with a new, externally old-looking but internally modern, structure. We are so grateful to Philemon Williams and the local builders who arranged it.

Our members are so supportive and take part willingly in our service and we especially love to see the children when they attend. My thanks to them all, in particular Helen who has a very long journey to collect me (and return me) for our services. We always say – our building may be small, but our congregation is large and warm-hearted, and always ready with a welcome.

Our best wishes to all in our District.

Julianne Morgan

MEN'S GROUP

We met on Thursday 11th April for a visit to the Penderyn Furniture and Antiques Company at the old Soar chapel in Penderyn (memories for myself as I used to attend Soar as a child). This was followed by a short ride up to the historic St. Cynog's church. This has been the site of religious worship since the 6th Century. The first small timber church was burned down during one of the periodic outbreaks of war between the Marcher lords. The oldest part of the current building is the west tower, dating to the 13th century. The rest of the church is largely the result of late Victorian rebuilding which removed many of the medieval features. The church stands within a large circular churchyard, holding an estimated 10,000 burials. It was thought to be an honour to be buried at Penderyn. Certainly, the number of extravagant family vaults near the tower suggest that numerous wealthy families considered it worthwhile to bury their dead there! Within the stone wall enclosing the churchyard is set a fold, or pen, for storing stray sheep. The oldest stained glass is the striking west window, given in 1886 by the Morgan family of Bodwigiad. (I wish I'd had all this information to hand during the visit. Sorry friends, but you know now!). Sadly, the church is now closed, and we were unable to gain entry as there is no public liability insurance on the building. At least I am lucky enough to have memories of the interior. We then motored over the mountain road for lunch at the New Inn in Rhigos.

On a quite windy May 9th we met up at Cwmbach, near Aberdare for a visit to the site of the now demolished Unitarian chapel, although we were unable to find the commemorative plaque that was there at one time. We then moved on down the road to see St Mary's Church and then to the site of the very first Co-operative store in Wales, though Alun Watts soon burst our bubble when he told us that it was not the very first, but it was the longest lasting. Alun gave us an extremely interesting talk on the history of Cwmbach, pointing out places of special interest. This is a talk well worth hearing. Thank you, Alun. It was then on to the Ynyscynon Inn for refreshments. We meet next on 27th June, destination is yet to be confirmed.
